FRONT COVER

GA224 Eastwards along the Dorset coast from White Nothe to St Aldhems Head .

A view along the Dorset coast showing the typical swithback formation common to the Purbecks. The hills are in order White Nothe, Bat's Head, Swyre Head, Hambury Tout/Dungy Head and Bindon Hill. The South West Coast path guide describes the walk as 'challenging'. I can confirm that, but it also applies to most of the Purbeck sections. This section varies from about 400' to sea level. There's an old smugglers path winding its way over the hills seemingly following the most tortuous route, presumably to avoid the Customs Men.

In the background, nearly lost in the haze, is St Aldhelms Head; with the Lulworth Ranges in between. A distance of about twelve miles.

Current and archived results, Gas & Air, averages etc., are also published in PDF format on www.dsrpa.co.uk

The DSRPA also organize Gallery/Sport Rifle Leagues. If you're interested ask for your name to be added to the contact list for this discipline.
