Gallery Rifle

As over half the competitors in the GRFC section had considerable variations from previous/submitted averages I have completely ignored all previous averages and based the GRFC divisions on current results. Perhaps not the best solution but without this change there would have been division three competitors achieving the same scores as the leaders of division one.

Quite why it arose is unclear, but as averages in GRFC tend to see-saw a bit I've always assumed it's suspect reloading practices. Who knows!
